60,000 Ford Workers Ordered To Walk Out

Scheduled To Begin On Thursday

Detroit, May 3—(AP)—An authorized strike of 60,000 Ford Motor Co. workers was ordered today.

The walkout was scheduled to begin at noon Thursday (May 5).

Local 600 of the CIO United Auto Workers changed plans to call the strike tomorrow after the international executive board set the Thursday date.

A shutdown at Ford's Big Rouge plant would soon tie up most of the company's farflung operations.

Charges Assembly Speedup
Both the local and UAW President Walter P. Reuther charged that Ford had speeded up assembly lines again today. Production rates have been the center of a dispute for several weeks.

There was no comment from Ford. Things happened in quick and confused succession at Ford today.

A local committee checked the lines and reported the speed-up.

The local executive board, in emergency session, ordered the strike at 10 a. m. tomorrow—whether or not the international approved.

Shortly afterward, the international executive board set the Thursday deadline and announced that any walkout before then would be unauthorized.

In a second emergency session, local 600 agreed to conform to the international's deadline.

The announcements broke out of a clear sky when it appeared settlement was near. After an investigation yesterday, UAW secretary-treasurer Emil Mazey reported Ford had slowed down the lines to a speed acceptable to the union.

Coincides With Another Strike
The Rouge strike would coincide with a scheduled walkout of 3,500 workers at Ford's Lincoln-Mercury plant Thursday. An alleged speed-up also is at issue there.

Reuther's statement said: "Unless an agreement is reached on the speed-up issue in the 'B' building by noon Thursday, a strike of the entire plant will be called at that time."

"The union is prepared to exert every effort between now and Thursday noon to reach a settlement through negotiations."

For Reuther, an agreement was particularly urgent. A strike at Ford, first target in the UAW's spring contract drive, could upset strategy in the campaign for industry-wide pensions and health benefits.

Only today the UAW asked Ford for an opening of negotiations May 16, 60 days before the Ford contract expires.

States Business Recession Will Aid Prosperity

Washington, May 3—(AP)—The business recession will aid a "sounder" prosperity, the United States Chamber of Commerce was told by its leaders today.

The explanation: Price cuts will draw consumers back into the market.

This mood of business optimism, keyed by President Earl O. Shreve, was matched in foreign affairs by Secretary of State Dean Acheson at the Chamber's 37th annual meeting.

The Marshall plan has turned the tide of the cold war in Europe, Acheson said.

Acheson urged the 2,000 businessmen to support the International Trade organization charter, sent to Congress last week by President Truman. The 54-nation pact, he predicted, will be the "Capstone" of this country's foreign economic policy.

Barvarian Cabinet Meets To Discuss Monarchist Move

Frankfurt, Germany, May 3—(AP)—The Bavarian cabinet held an extraordinary meeting today as a result of monarchist opposition to the state's joining in a west German republic.

Alois Hundhammer, Bavarian minister of culture, declared last Sunday that Bavaria, biggest state in the American zone, "in no case can join a centralistic state."

Josef Baumgartner, Bavarian party chairman, urged today that the state, instead of joining a west German republic, "hoist the flag" of the Prince-Bishopric.

American military government observers said, however, that 60 percent of Bavaria's voters probably would vote for the republic if Hans Thard, the state's minister-president, advises that course.

Believes West Sent Malik Blockade Plan

New York, May 3—(AP)—A diplomatic source said today he believed a joint western power declaration on the Berlin blockade had been sent to Russia's Jakob A. Malik.

This would mean the next move in Russia's top secret talks.

Ambassador Philip C. Jessup, United States, Sir Alexander Cadogan, Britain, and Jean Chauvel, France, sat in their offices through the day waiting word on what comes next.

Malik attended a committee meeting at Lake Success this morning and then returned to the Soviet delegation home on Park avenue.

A secretary said this afternoon he was in the Soviet building but declined to say where he had gone.

Malik answered "no comment" to all questions about a possible meeting when he left Lake Success.

Jessup, Cadogan and Chauvel met at Jessup's Park avenue office yesterday.

Out of this three-power talk was drawn up the joint declaration of policy which the western diplomatic source said he believed had gone to the Russians today.

Speculation among several official sources was that this declaration contained at least these two points:

1. A call for lifting the blockade of Berlin soon, perhaps next week.

2. A suggested date for the meeting of the foreign ministers of Russia, Britain, France and the United States to deal with the whole German problem. These officials make up the council of foreign ministers.

May 25 is the date generally mentioned in informed circles.

It is generally accepted here that the council would meet in Paris.

Defense Scoffs At US Shadow Chase Of Judith Coplon

Washington, May 3—(AP)—The defense scoffed at the government's shadow chase of "this little girl," Judith Coplon, at her espionage trial today and probed into FBI methods.

Defense Counsel Archibald Palmer suggested derisively that federal operatives followed Miss Coplon "like a daisy chain."

Amid audible chuckles from the crowded courtroom, the defense lawyer then brought out that FBI agents trailed the 27-year-old defendant on three shopping and pleasure expeditions as well as three other times when she met her alleged Russian sweetheart, Valentine A. Gubichev, 32.

Miss Coplon, former Justice department analyst, is accused of filing FBI secrets with intent to benefit a foreign power, meaning Russia.

The Republican sponsored proposal has the blessings of Governor Stevenson, a Democrat. There were no votes against it.

The commission, similar to a federal group headed by Herbert Hoover, would be authorized to make a "comprehensive study of the entire structure of state government and its procedures, including policy-making and administrative decisions."

Among its specific aims would be detection of "weaknesses in administration and causes for excessive costs, waste and inefficiency" in the rendering of state services.

The bill, authored by Reps. W. Russell Arrington and Noble W. Lee, both of Chicago, calls for a report of commission findings to the 1951 general assembly along with recommendations to remedy the governmental defects discovered.

Liabel identified the American as Pfc. Edward J. Touhey of Howard Beach, Long Island, N. Y. He said Touhey was under observation in the locked room of an army hospital here.

Liabel said Touhey had been drinking "but not enough to cause all this disturbance." Touhey was described as over six feet, three inches tall and weighing about 230 pounds.

The "one-man" war against the Russians attracted hundreds of spectators. It put the American headquarters here in a tizzy. They expected an official Russian protest tomorrow.

Truman Agrees To Release Clay As German Governor

Washington, May 3—(AP)—President Truman announced today he is agreeing to the release of Gen. Lucius D. Clay as United States Military Commander in Germany.

The president also disclosed that Gen. Clarence R. Huebner and Maj. Gen. George P. Hays, Clay's military and military government deputies, "will carry on his work pending the appointment of a civilian high commissioner."

In a statement, Mr. Truman said the work "of moral and economic reconstruction" in the western zone now has reached a point where the Germans "are about to obtain a greatly enlarged measure of political and economic responsibility."

Asserting that "General Clay has now completed a prodigious task of administration," the president said the four-star general is being relieved on May 15, in deference to "his repeated requests to be released from his task."

The garrison command community, issued about 10 a. m., said the Chekiang Provincial Peace Preservation Corps evacuated Hangchow at noon yesterday after completing a delaying action. This force was all that was left for the defense of Hangchow.

After the peace preservation corps moved out, the communist said, contact with the seacoast resort city was lost.

The garrison confirmed earlier Chinese press dispatches which said Hangchow had gone over to the communists peacefully. There was no fighting in defense of the city, the garrison said.

There was no indication, however, that the Reds were closing in any tighter on Shanghai itself. Trains still were running to Luchiapang, 26 miles westward on the Shanghai-Nanking railway, and to Kashing, 50 miles southwest on the Shanghai-Hangchow line.

The Shanghai newspaper Shun Pao said Hangchow was occupied by 4,000 Red soldiers yesterday afternoon.

The communist radio made no mention of Hangchow last night but said more than 80,000 government troops had been taken prisoner at the conclusion of a great annihilation campaign in the Nanking-Hangchow triangle on April 29.

The Red broadcast from Peiping claimed 12 more towns had been captured south of the Yangtze, mostly with the aid of local guerrilla forces. The broadcast said "this takes the peoples' (communist) army as far south as East Kiangsi."

If Hangchow has gone the way of so many others, the next few days should tell what the Reds intend to do about Shanghai.

If they turn their forces toward this largest city of Asia, probably it will go, too, in a few days. But if they face south, it will likely mean Shanghai is to be bypassed temporarily.

The communist radio also broadcast a claim that Red troops had captured Kwangteh, which is about half way from Wuhu on the Yangtze to Hangchow.

Some further parliamentary maneuvering was in store before the bill could clear the house and go to the Senate.

But a coalition of southern democrats and northern republicans bent on retaining the Taft-Hartley law largely intact was jubilant.

Conversely, the administration forces, which sought repeal of the T-H law and revival of the old Wagner Act in modified form, were plunged into gloom.

On the rollcall test 146 republicans joined 71 democrats in voting for the Wood bill. Voting against it was 180 democrats, 22 republicans and one American-labor.

Before the roll call vote the House had tentatively approved the Wood bill on a non-record tally of 210 to 196.

The measure had been offered by Rep. Wood (D-Ga.).

Previously the Dixie-Republican coalition had chalked up an important preliminary victory when the House knocked down, 211 to 183, a compromise put forward by the democratic leadership.

Final passage of the Wood bill was delayed by Rep. Marcantonio (AL-NY).

Just as the final vote was reached, he demanded that an engrossed copy of the bill be read. This request can be made if any amendments have been adopted.

Engrossment is a special printing process, which prints the legislation, as amended, in its final form. In the case of a bulky bill, as the Wood measure is, it means a delay at least overnight.

So, in view of Marcantonio's demand, the House turned to other matters, putting off final action on the labor legislation until tomorrow.

The Wood bill would "repeal" the Taft-Hartley law on paper, but reenact most of its important features. It would retain the 90-day injunctions in "national emergency" strikes. It would keep the present non-company oaths, but apply them to company officers as well as union officers.

It would ban closed shop contracts, but permit them in any state which took affirmative action to permit them by state law. This states' rights feature was added at the last minute in an amendment by Rep. Hays (D-Ark.).

Speaker Rayburn had made a plea to the House for a compromise but put forward in an effort to salvage part of the administration program, but his speech was in vain.

Rayburn and other democratic leaders, concluding that President Truman's drive for outright repeal of the T-H act could not succeed, drew up the compromise yesterday.

Propose UN Ask Vatican To Speak On Jerusalem Rule

Lake Success, May 3—(AP)—Argentina proposed today that the United Nations invite the Vatican to give the Catholic views on international rule for Jerusalem.

The move came in debate in the general assembly's 58-nation special political committee on Israel's application for UN membership.

The committee adjourned until tomorrow morning without acting. The Arab-Muslim countries resumed their flight on Israel's bid. Israel hopes to be admitted before the assembly's scheduled adjournment May 14.

Lebanon urged postponement until Israel agrees to international rule over Jerusalem and to allow Palestinian refugees to return home.

Pope Pius XII recently said the church favored some sort of international administration.

House Passes Wood Labor Bill In 217-203 Roll Call

Nationalists Admit Communists Have Cut Off Shanghai By Land

Shanghai, Wednesday, May 4—(AP)—The Shanghai garrison command today admitted the loss of Hangchow, nationalist escape port 100 miles southwest on the Shanghai-Hangchow line.

(Communist control of Hangchow seals off Shanghai by land from the rest of China and closes the trap on nationalist forces remaining in the Nanking-Shanghai-Hangchow triangle. Their only exit now is by sea.)

The garrison command community, issued about 10 a. m., said the Chekiang Provincial Peace Preservation Corps evacuated Hangchow at noon yesterday after completing a delaying action. This force was all that was left for the defense of Hangchow.

After the peace preservation corps moved out, the communist said, contact with the seacoast resort city was lost.

SAFETY GREATEST NEED OF MODERN TRAVEL

With tragic suddenness another bad automobile accident has taken its dreadful toll in this community. Two persons, a young mother and her infant daughter, are dead and two others involved in the fatal collision lie in serious condition.

Unfortunately there is nothing which can now be done to retrieve this particular tragedy, but we would all do well to pledge ourselves to drive more carefully, more slowly and with constant alertness.

In Ohio at one time white crosses were erected at every place where there had been a fatal accident. They became so numerous and were such grim reminders of lurking death that the plan was abandoned. Sometimes, however, it takes a severe shock to slow some motorists down. Such a terrible accident as that which occurred on the outskirts of Jacksonville Saturday night should make everyone think twice before taking any chances on the highway.

MECHANIZATION MAY BRING ERA OF PRODUCTION LINE MINING

John L. Lewis has consistently supported mechanization of mines and high individual productivity. Now he has given notice that he expects a "dividend" for this support in the form of a shorter work day, higher welfare payments and a more even distribution of work for his miners.

A few days ago a coal operator said that he thought that if there was another rise in labor costs ahead, he and his colleagues would have to absorb it rather than pass it along to the customers.

Making allowance for the usual measure of guff, these statements indicate that both sides have accepted mechanization as being here to stay.

Mechanization will mean lower costs. At least it always has, and there is no reason why it shouldn't in mining. The coal operators are not philanthropists. And when one of them suggests that they might absorb another wage rise, it probably means that they can afford it.

The term mechanization, like such terms as mass production and assembly line, is usually associated with industries surrounded by four walls. The greatest development, of course, has been in factory production. But now more machines—and hence more economy, speed and efficiency—are becoming part of the mining picture.

This is neither accident nor haphazard evolution. It is a growing necessity. Mr. Von Thaden pointed out in a recent speech. Mr. Von Thaden is an executive of Hewitt-Robins, Inc., a firm that makes belt conveyors and accordingly knows something about moving minerals and the material that separates minerals from miners.

He said that our supply of high-grade iron ore, though still measured in decades, is low enough to require conservation through processing of low-grade ore. Three times as much of the latter ore is required to make the same amount of steel. So he estimated that we shall soon have to have 400,000,000 more tons of ore a year for our iron and steel requirements.

Mr. Von Thaden also said that growing requirements of coal for electric power and for the synthetic oil program that the Bureau of Mines recommends will call for 250,000,000 more tons of coal a year.

All industry depends on these two basic materials. And ultimately the speed of industrial production is geared to the speed with which they can be recovered and handled. It is possible, then, that we are at the beginning of a period when something like the continuous flow of the production line will have to be applied to mining.

There is another aspect of this trend. Government planners are talking these days about "stockpiling ore in the ground." They are thinking of a possible war emergency in which foreign ore might be unavailable. This thought applies as well to overseas oil reserves. A mechanized mining industry could "stockpile," in effect, by handling ore more quickly and efficiently, and by reaching coal which now is impossible or unfeasible to uncover.

Qualifying Events Are Held For Boy Scout Swim Meet

The qualifying events in the Boy Scout swim meet were held Monday at 7 p. m. at the pool at the Illinois School for the Deaf.

Harlan L. Williamson was chairman, with Dick Friskey, Bill Schaefer and Jim Monarik as assistants and life guards. Also assisting were Lloyd Graunke and Gene Clements, Scout leaders.

The finals will be held Wednesday at 7 p. m. at the I. S. D. pool.

Those winning heats in the crawl event Monday night were McKinsey, troop 114, Kircher, 107, Omundson, 102, Buck, 114, Marshall, 115, Brockhouse, 103, Kemp, 113, Birdsong, 113, and Antle, 103.

Winners in the backstroke qualifying events were Omundson, 102, Marshall, 115, Drennan, 111, Blair, 115, Gindice, 114, Keller, 114, Thayer, 102, Kemp, 113, and Shine, 103.

The breast stroke qualifying events were won by Omundson, 102, Buck, 114, Montfort, 114, Kemp, 113, Shine, 103, Williams, 115, McMann, 115, and Antle, 103.

Those qualifying for Class "A" competition in the crawl, 15 seconds or better, were McKinsey, Crawford, Kircher, Meyer, Omundson, Buck, Marshall, Crawford, Briggs, Feller, Shine, Williams, Francis, McMann, Antle, Kent, Wallace, Brennan, Jackson, Kemp and Birdsong; in the backstroke, 19 seconds or better, Crawford, Marshall, Drennan, Gindice, Kutileh, Keller, Meyer, Williams, Francis, Antle, Thayer, Kumble, Kemp, Walker, Shine and Longhorn; in the breast stroke, 20 seconds or better, Meyer, Omundson, Buck, Marshall, Drennan, Gindice, Momson, Montfort, Kemp, Shine, Williams, Francis, McMann, Antle, Jackson, Brennan, Kemp, Reed, Birdsong, Louder and Walker.

Qualifying for Class "B" competition were Rawlings, Brockhouse, Jones, Wood, Ervin, Biggs, Reed, Louder, Beesley and Barnes; in the crawl; Omundson, Brockhouse, Blair, Momson, Morrison, Jackson, Mays, Birdsong, Louder, Stone and Wild; in the backstroke; Brockhouse, Blair, Keller, Francis, Pfeifer, Kemp, Jones, Rawlings, Thayer, Barnes, Longhorn, Wild and Ervin.

Psoriasis Is An Irritating But Harmless Disease

By Edwin P. Jordan, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Psoriasis is a common and annoying skin disease, though it is usually harmless so far as life or general health is concerned. Only a small part of the skin may be affected, or it may tend to cover almost all of the body surface. The elbows, knees, scalp and lower back are the most common locations.

The eruption may begin suddenly or it may start with only a few spots on scattered parts of the body. The affected area is usually bright red, scaly, and flat. There is a sharp line between the involved skin and that which appears completely normal.

Itching is unusual in the common chronic cases. In the acute cases, however, itching is frequent. After a time the affected skin usually becomes covered with a thick scale, and if this scale is scraped off, tiny bleeding points appear underneath.

Cause Unknown
The cause of psoriasis is not known. Members of the same family often have psoriasis, however, so that many doctors have commented on the family tendency. It is almost certainly not infectious.

There are a good many treatments which have been tried which seem to bring about good results, at least temporarily.

In fact, psoriasis is one of those diseases for which several new treatments are reported almost every year. A number of these have not stood the test of time, and therefore one should be extremely cautious about accepting their value.

In many cases of chronic psoriasis, good results may come from any one of the different treatments, but the psoriasis later returns. When the same treatment which produced good results the first time is tried again, nothing may come of it and a new method has to be used. For these reasons, psoriasis is often an extremely discouraging thing for patient and doctor alike.

Note: Dr. Jordan is unable to answer individual questions from readers. However, each day he will answer one of the most frequently asked questions in his column.

THE DOCTOR ANSWERS

By Edwin P. Jordan, M.D.
QUESTION: Is there anything which will kill the cold germ or the germ of influenza? I get the grippe about every three months.

ANSWER: The cause of both is probably a virus. Up to this time there is no medicine or drug which has accepted value in killing the virus of either of these diseases.

Ebenezer W.S.C.S. Chooses Officers, Department Heads

Officers and secretaries for the various departments were chosen by the Ebenezer W.S.C.S. at its meeting held at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Martin, 221 North Webster avenue.

Those named were Mrs. Charles Brainer, president, Mrs. L. C. Moss, first vice president, and Mrs. W. G. Hadden, second vice president, all three of whom were reelected; Mrs. Harold Cully, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Howard Houston, recording secretary; Mrs. Stella Smith, treasurer; and Mrs. Robert Houston, assistant.

Headling the various departments are Miss Ella Blackburn, missionary education; Mrs. John Hadden, social activities in relation to local church activities; Mrs. Arthur Jokish, assistant; Mrs. John Bridgman, youth and student work; Mrs. Everett Hynes, assistant; Mrs. Annetta Scott, spiritual life; Mrs. Frank Wells, status of women; Mrs. Charles Reid, courtesy; and Mrs. Clyde Patterson, literature and publicity.

The meeting opened with prayer by Mrs. C. F. Baker. Devotions were led by Mrs. Mrs. W. G. Hadden and Mrs. F. J. Blackburn. Mrs. Annetta Scott gave a talk on "Spiritual Life." Twenty-six members responded to roll call by telling of their "Childhood Memories." Plans were made for the annual thank offering, to be held at the church on May 15. Mrs. Frank Wells was named delegate to the W.S.C.S. conference meeting. A donation was voted for the Baby Fold.

The program was in the charge of Mrs. R. A. Gates, who gave a talk on "Changes in the Orient." Guests present were Mrs. C. F. Baker, Mrs. Marshall Fanning and Mrs. Claude Petefish.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Paul A. Johnson and Mrs. J. H. McFadden.

TOASTMISTRESS CLUB MEETS, HEARS DEBATE

A debate on socialized medicine, with Miss Emma Berschneider as toastmistress, was enjoyed by members of the Ente Nous Toastmistress club at their monthly dinner meeting recently at Hamilton's cafe. Participants were Mrs. Helen Quinn, Miss Lorraine Stute, Miss Ann Devlin and Miss Selly Broderick. An interesting discussion followed. Mrs. Marie Saner, topic toastmistress, introduced Miss Betty Hall and Miss Catherine Schirz, who spoke briefly. Helen Curtis, president, presided. Miss Helen Devlin served as general evaluator.

Guests were Mrs. Marian Doyle, Miss Jane Doherty and Miss Rose Marie Saner. Members of the C.D.A. Toastmistress group of Springfield will be guests at the next session.

SWORD SWALLOWER HUNGRY FOR BAYONET

Lyon, France.—(P)—When the police returned sword-swallower Camille Pedebosc a stolen suitcase containing the sabers that were his stock-in-trade, Pedebosc sadly complained that a bayonet was missing. "That was my favorite which I ate most often," he declared. "It was a kind of aperitif for me."

Great Books Group Discusses Hamlet At Monday Session

Dr. Elizabeth Hastings was guest leader for the discussion of "Hamlet" when the Great Books discussion group met at the public library Monday evening. Dr. Hastings opened the discussion with the question, "Why is Hamlet included among the Great Books?" The consensus of the group was that the decisions which Hamlet was required to make were decisions with which people of every generation are faced and that the ideas with which the play deals are timeless ones.

A training course for leaders of Great Books discussions groups will be conducted at the Lincoln library in Springfield from July 11-22, on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday evenings at 7:30, under the direction of experts in discussion methods from the Great Books Foundation.

Anyone interested in taking the training may enroll by calling the Jacksonville Public library. Locke's second essay "Of Civil Government" will be the basis for a discussion when the group meets on May 16.

Clean Up Day To Be Held Sunday At Fair Grounds

Sunday, May 7, has been designated as clean-up day at the Morean county fairgrounds. Claude Gustine, president of the fair association, stated Tuesday that he hopes all fair association members as well as all public spirited citizens interested in the work of the association will report Sunday for volunteer service. Brush and debris accumulated as a result of last winter's storms will be collected and burned. Trucks and graders will be needed to haul trash and level uneven ground.

"We hope to put the grounds in 'ship-shape' for the coming season," Mr. Gustine stated. Plans are already made to hold auto races, motorcycle races and several other community events at the grounds this summer.

ROODHOUSE

Roodhouse—The Rev. Leland Roth, state director of religious education, will speak at the First Baptist church Wednesday evening. The Rev. R. L. Goodson, a former pastor, now of the state department, will also be present.

Mrs. Williams of Jerseyville, interpreter, will address the Women's Mission circle of the Baptist church at its next meeting, May 10.

An official board meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the office of the Church of Christ.

Miss Yuelletta Ralston spent the week end in Springfield, where she attended the 14th annual convention of the Delta Kappa Gamma society, Illinois Lambda state organization. Miss Mabel Hopkins attended the birthday luncheon at the same convention on Saturday.

Miss Artie Olson left Saturday for Paola, Kans., where she will visit in the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dawson.

Mrs. Della Ash is a patient at Passavant hospital following a stroke. Mrs. Harvey Ferguson, Springfield, is a surgical patient at St. John's hospital in that city. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson, former Roodhouse residents, moved to Springfield this winter.

Rural School In Greene Co. Closes After 75 Years

Carrollton—The bell at the Christian Grove school in Woodville, was sounded for the last time Sunday, when the school closed after approximately 75 years of service to the youth of the community.

The school was built in either 1874 or 1877, when the Woodville school house became so crowded that it was necessary to make room for the young students in some way. The school opened with Richard LaForce as teacher and 22 pupils, and closed Sunday with Mrs. Martin Kaffer as teacher and an enrollment of five pupils.

Of the original twenty-two pupils, seven are living and four of the seven attended the basket dinner and close of school program held Sunday. Mrs. Jasper Hutchens of this city, one of the 22 first pupils, wrote a history of the school as she remembered it through the years. The story was read by her son, Judge G. K. Hutchens of this city.

All of the four who were present. Mrs. Hutchens, Mrs. Mary J. Bor-man, Reuben Clendenin and Frank King, gave short talks in which they told of incidents which they remembered during the days in which they were receiving their early education in the old school.

The remaining three of the surviving seven of the original school enrollment who were unable to be present were Mrs. A. W. Scott and Mrs. Lydia Trusty of this city and Mrs. Kate Tuck who makes her home in Missouri.

WINCHESTER

Winchester—Sol Hainsfurther was a business caller in St. Louis on Wednesday attending a shoe fair. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Blackburn of Olney, Ill., are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Watt and family. The Blackburns arrived in time to attend a wiener roast held Wednesday afternoon in honor of Les Watt's seventh birthday.

Mrs. Ralph Peak entertained her two bridge clubs at her home Thursday afternoon.

Miss Margaret Crabtree of St. Louis is visiting her sister, Mrs. Claude Wisdom.

Mrs. Belle Straus has returned home after spending the winter with relatives in Chicago.

Mrs. Rose McLaughlin and her brother, Henry Murphy, left Thursday for a trip through the west.

YOUR EMPORIUM BUYS OUT KENOSH SHOE STORE KENOSH, WIS.

Big shoe store forced to close by unavoidable conditions and the disagreement of several important stockholders who demanded immediate liquidation of all assets made it possible for The EMPORIUM, East State street to obtain a hundred cases of ladies fine footwear at a fraction of their cost to make.

What promises to be the largest and most important sale of womens shoes is taking place right now and will continue until 3,000 pairs are disposed of at prices never so low.

Strange things are happening these days, and this purchase of beautiful Womens shoes, made up of the finest quality leathers on the market, are a revelation in merchandising so low is the price consideration.

The feature prices of the sale are $1.44—$2.00—$2.88—$3.88 and $4.88. This gives women a chance to buy shoes and slippers made to sell from $6.00 to $10.00. The women planning to own several pairs for her wardrobe will be thrilled at the values offered and the savings made possible. Women living many miles from Jacksonville, will find a trip to the EMPORIUM profitable by sharing in this unusual and timely shoe sale.

Aileen Leininger Becomes Bride Of Jack Inman

Carrollton.—The marriage of Mrs. Aileen Leininger, daughter of Judge and Mrs. L. A. Mehrhoff of this city, and Jack Inman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Inman of Jerseyville, took place Sunday at 4 p.m. in the Mehrhoff home. The ceremony was performed by Rev. O. R. Spreckelmeyer of Divernon, a former pastor of the local Methodist church.

The living room of the Mehrhoff home was arranged with bouquets of roses and the mantel of the fireplace, which formed the setting for the wedding, was banked with ferns, white snapdragons, gardenias and fever tree.

Prior to the ceremony Everett Mehl of this city sang "Because" and "Thru the Years," with Miss Nita Ford as accompanist. Miss Ford also played the wedding processional.

The bride chose for her wedding a blue gabardine suit with which she wore white accessories and a corsage of lilies of the valley. The matron of honor, Mrs. Derryl Mehrhoff of this city, wore a suit of grey tweed and white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. James Inman of Jerseyville served his brother as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception for the members of the bridal party, the relatives and friends was held at the Mehrhoff home, after which Mr. and Mrs. Inman left on a wedding trip to Mexico. Upon their return they will occupy a second floor apartment in the Inman building here.

Mrs. Inman is assistant secretary-treasurer of the National Farm Loan association of this city. She is a graduate of the local high school and of Christian college, Columbia, Mo. During World War II she served in the Women's Marine corp. Inman served as a captain in the U. S. Army Air Force in the European war zone for five years. Coming to Carrollton in 1947, he opened the Inman department store, where he is now engaged in business.

Creamed cottage cheese makes a savory spread for crisp crackers or melba toast when it is mixed with drained, shredded anchovies and a little finely minced chives. If chives are not available add a little onion juice. Turn the spread into an attractive small serving bowl, dust with paprika, and garnish with parsley if you like.

These prices feature "Extras" that aren't!

If you're price-conscious these days as you shop for new cars, you've probably made a big discovery.

It's important to find out what the price includes—particularly in the normal "spread" between list and delivered prices.

Take these Buick prices given here. All of them, as the panel tells you, cover such universally wanted accessories as radio and antenna, heater and defroster, windshield washers and built-in back-up lights.

These are individually itemized on your bill of sale. Not itemized, but still included in your Buick when you get it, are many things that classify as extra-cost items on many other cars.

For instance, Foamtex seat cushions are an extra value on Buick SUPERS and ROADMASTERS that cost you nothing extra. You get direction signals, rear wheel shields, a flexible steering wheel, an air cleaner, an oil filter, a clock—all included in the basic list price. On all ROADMASTERS, these prices even cover Dynaflo Drive as standard equipment, not an extra-cost item.

Included also, of course, are such Buick extra values as Fireball power, which you get nowhere else—all-coil springing, almost an exclusive—the widest rims in the industry—and that very special and desirable solid Buick feel.

So—check the "extras" when you price today's cars. Check the "deal" too, and make sure it's as fair and aboveboard as the Buick sales policy.

We're pretty sure what your conclusion will be when you see what stepped-up production is doing to deliveries. You'll decide "Buick's the buy!"—and get your order in.

City Of Virginia Sparkles After Two Cleanup Days

Virginia—Approximately 27 truck loads of cans and rubbish were hauled from Virginia in the two days of the pick-up service.

The Woman's club of Virginia had requested everyone having trash to place it on the curb where the City of Virginia truck was to pick it up.

The people responded in an overwhelming capacity, according to Chief of Police Paul Miller. Everything from tin cans, old guttering and even an old street-light reflector showed up.

However large, this amount may seem it was a smaller collection than last year's which is a showing worth while reporting. The city took on new life with the flowers and trees beginning to bloom. Even the City Hall has a new front and entrance.

4-H Club Has Picnic

Mrs. Gussie Fraser, Greene County Youth assistant, attended a picnic Friday of last week at Martin's Prairie school northeast of Rood house and gave a talk on "Organization of 4-H Clubs." The next meeting of the 4-H club of that district will be held at the school on May 4 at 8 p.m. and all boys and girls of that age are urged to attend. Charles Morgan is leader.

A miscellaneous shower was given Friday night in honor of Miss Louise Settle, at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Smith on West Bridgeport street. Miss Settle will marry Wm. C. Fry, Jr. on Sunday, May 8 at the First Baptist church.

Many useful gifts were given the bride-to-be and games were enjoyed by all present with prizes being awarded to Mrs. Ludilla Fry, Miss Irene Ransom and Mrs. Irene Fry. Dainty refreshments were served. Guests included besides the host, Mrs. Nell Stanford of Carrollton, Mrs. Jo Lamsaw of Wrights, Mrs. Iora Fry of Patterson, Mrs. Winnie Fry, Mrs. Lucille Fry, Mrs. Irene Fry, Miss Irene Ransom, Mrs. Mildred Havin, Mrs. Louise Tilley, Mrs. Ivamae Dickerson, Mrs. Settle, Mrs. Frances Knifen, Mrs. Opal Smith of White Hall.

School Consolidation Proposed At Woodson

A petition for an election on the question of consolidating the elementary schools in the Woodson community signed by 96 citizens, has been filed in the office of County Supt. John Deem.

The superintendent announced that the election will be held Saturday, May 14.

The proposed consolidation would include Woodson district 57, Cross Roads district 54, and Central Point district 56, which have a total enrollment of about 75 grade school children.

Polls will be open from noon to 7 p. m. on May 14. Citizens of the village of Woodson will vote at the Woodson school. Those in the rural territory will vote at Central Point school.

Should voters approve this consolidation, only three one room school districts would remain in the county, due to the merger which have taken place during the past few years. Other one room school districts are Elkhorn district 80, Morton district 63, and West Liberty district 73.

ISLAND OF ESCAPE

 By Hugh
 Lawrence
 Nelson

COPYRIGHT BY HUGH LAWRENCE NELSON DISTRIBUTED BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Four lonely women go to Speare Island on a fishing boat, the Simpatco. One of them, Bea Cosgrove, is told by Miguel Oak, skipper of the boat, not to go. He gives her a nickel-plated pistol to draw attention from the automatic which his trained eyes see concealed under her clothing. On the island Bea, aided with Agnes Firth, Mabel Jones and Lilly Warren, are greeted by Henry Gough Harding, owner of the island. Each of the women carries a letter from the Lonelyhearts Matrimonial and Correspondence Club as credentials.

HENRY GOUGH HARDING'S close-cropped hair, either gray or blond, fitted his massive skull like a cap. His deeply tanned skin, his bushy black eyebrows emphasized the blue of his eyes.

Bea watched his long fingers stir through the contents of the four bags. He stopped poking, fished out the tiny revolver.

"Which of you felt the need for this?"

"It's mine," Bea said. She felt a rush of color to her face as he stood there studying her, making no attempt to hide his amusement.

"And you are?"

"Miss Cosgrove."

He picked up her letter. "So Miss Bea Cosgrove. Spinster. Schoolteacher for 20 years. Hair dark. Eyes hazel. I would have said green. Weight 125. Height five feet five. Age 40. Excellent character, moral, trustworthy and dependable. Hmmm. He looked at the gun again, tossed it in a show arc out into the water. "So."

He picked up another letter. "Mrs. Lilly Warren."

"Here," Lilly said.

"So I see. Mrs. Warren, widow. Private secretary. Hair natural red. Eyes black. That's interesting. Weight 115. Height five feet four. Age 41. Well spoken of by last employer. Vivacious and gay."

He picked up another letter. "Mrs. Jones, also a widow. Housewife. Hair brown to gray. Eyes brown. Weight 110. Height five feet nine. Age 44. Recommended as a quiet, devout, hard-working woman by pastor of local church."

Red splashed Agnes Firth's cheeks as she waited for Harding to begin on the last letter. "Miss Agnes Firth, spinster. Social service worker. Hair blond. Eyes blue. Weight 118. Height five feet three. Age 43. Excellent record at social work until her resignation over two years ago."

Harding tore the four letters into small scraps, scattered them into the water. "On Speare Island we have the present and the future. When I tore up those letters, I erased the past and any holdovers of the necessity of lying and scheming in the world you've left. It is a new beginning, a new chance for you all."

THE house's stone foundation and the veranda on the west and south sides blended with the hill to the north and overhung the sheer drop of cliff to the east. Broad stone steps on the west led up to the veranda and the wide front doors. On the south, the twin narrow-gauge tracks appeared abruptly on the steep slope leading to the cove and disappeared in an opening in the foundation.

The glistening white of the two-story structure was saved from the appearance of an overgrown box by the square tower at the southwest corner.

Inside the house the mutton-smelling candles on the large dining table flickered when Henry Harding stood up to end the meal. "I know you're all tired, and I'll not keep you long. There are some things to be said, and a decision to be made. One of you may become my wife. I intend to be blunt now to save future misunderstandings."

First, something about myself. Some years ago I was a small town real estate dealer. Oil was discovered on some property I acquired. I sold part of my holdings for millions.

Bea watched his long fingers stir through the contents of the four bags. He fished out the tiny revolver.

"I acquired this island. Some of you may remember the newspaper headlines: 'Eccentric Millionaire to Found New Eden.' People laughed at me, but I poured a portion of my money into Speare Island. The boat you came on has been under my charter. For over a year now I have had crews of material though of a coarse weave was soft, clinging. She said, "If it fits, I'll be glad to wear it."

He said stiffly, "It will fit. I have had your measurements. I have planned. The green and the garden go to Mrs. Jones."

"I can garden," Mabel said. "I got a green thumb."

"To Miss Firth, the orange, and the sheep."

"I'll do my best," Agnes said. "I don't know anything about sheep."

"Just keep them away from the cliffs. They're stupid animals, apt to commit suicide."

BEA COSGROVE'S fingers tightened. She glanced quickly at the man, but he had already turned to smile at Lilly Warren.

"The blue is yours. For the present there will be much to do in the lower storeroom."

"I'll look forward to it," Lilly said.

"One thing more. There are no pockets in your costumes. I do not know whether any of you ladies indulge in the tobacco habit. On Speare Island during the dry season there is no smoking, no carrying of matches. Fire is our enemy. The brush and grass are tinder dry. In a week, or two or three, the rains begin. Now, any questions?"

Mabel Jones tried to stifle a yawn.

"I'll clear away," Bea said. "It is getting late."

She finished clearing, washed the dishes and pans and hung the tea towel on a rack near the wood-burning stove.

She blew out all the candles but one, moved quickly to the sugar cupboard, hiked up her skirts with one hand while she made a nest between bags with the other. She forced the automatic in the cavity, patted down the bags.

A slight sound, a movement of air made her turn. She stood motionless. The swinging door moved gently back and forth a few times before it came to rest.

Suddenly, blindingly, there was a blaze of light. Bea looked around wildly until she made out the cunningly concealed electric lights. She walked into the now brightly lit main room. The three women were stock still near the table.

Henry Harding came in through the front door. "For tonight, as a special occasion, I've turned on the generators so you may have light to retire without candles. Good night."

COAL PROJECT BRINGS FARM PROFIT

Johannesburg—(AP)—Eleven years ago O. J. Bekker, a Johannesburg journalist, bought a farm on the Vaal-river, 40 miles from here for 7,500 pounds ($300,000). He has just sold it for 75,000 pounds. Reason: the discovery of coal and the decision of a big Johannesburg mining company to erect a 15,000,000 pound plant for making oil from coal. A large portion of Bekker's farm will also be used to erect a township to house 20,000 Europeans and 30,000 Africans within the next five years—but he will still retain his original farmhouse.

50,000th TELEPHONE INSTALLED

The 50,000th telephone in the 42 exchanges of the Illinois Telephone company was installed Saturday at the farm residence of Albert Coultas north of Winchester.

The photograph above shows Mrs. Coultas as she uses the phone for the first time. With her are Russell Dunn (center), chief installer at Winchester, and W. O. Randall (left), district manager of the company.

This, according to Mr. Randall, brings to 8,000 the gain in the number of phones installed in the three post-war years since the consolidation of the four independent companies making up the Illinois Telephone company. Rural phones constitute about an eighth of the company's totals. There are 2,100 applications for telephone service awaiting installation at the present time. This figure has been as high as 4,000.

The company has been making rapid improvement in the installation of telephone service, even though additional orders for telephones are still being placed.

Since consolidation the company has spent between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000 in telephone plant construction. The present outlook is for a continued construction program for several years to come.

A temperamental cow is responsible for Ray Hoots, Franklin former being confined to Our Saviour's hospital with injuries to his back and neck.

Hoots was milking the cow about 3:30 o'clock Tuesday morning at his farm on rural route two. Franklin the cow moved suddenly, crushing Hoots against the wall of the stall.

He was immediately brought to Our Saviour's hospital where X-Rays were taken later in the day to determine the full extent of his injuries. He has been admitted as a patient.

FAMILY OF 10 IS TWO-HOUSE PROBLEM

St. Neot's England —P— Ernest Gale, 43-year-old factory worker, told the St. Neot's Rural Council he wanted to rent a house in the council's development for his family.

The council counted noses and told him it would let him have two adjoining houses—and knock out the wall between.

Gale's family consists of himself, his wife and eight children from seven to sixteen.

For thrift as well as style... Studebaker's the 49 buy word

Here's what you get for your Studebaker dollar

New decorator fabric upholstery • New body colors • Self-adjusting brakes • Variable ratio "extra-leverage" steering • Panoramic vision • Seats centered between the axles • Low center of gravity • Glare-proof "black light" instrument dials • Automatic hill holder—available on Champions at slight added cost, but standard on other models • Automatic overdrive. Climate-tizer heating and ventilating, white sidewall tires and wheel trim rings or discs are optional at extra cost on all models.

THE clean-lined look of a 1949 Studebaker tells you it's a car with the right build for thrift. You don't see a trace of cumbersome excess bulk in those trim, graceful body contours. There's no gas-wasting surplus poundage in the rugged Studebaker chassis underneath.

This is motoring's most advanced kind of designing—it cuts driving costs substantially every mile.

Stop in for a look around and let us give you the names of some Studebaker owners to check with. You'll be amazed to learn what they save.

Phillies Defeat Cards 7 To 3 On Five Hits, Wild Pitching In 7th

Philadelphia, May 3.—(P)—Mixing Nelson, Hamner 2, Ennis 3, Lopata 3 hits with three bases on balls 2B—Kazak, Schoendienst, Ennis, DP and a hit batsman the Philadelphia Phillies scored six runs in the seventh and defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 7-3 here tonight in the first game of the series.

Ken Johnson lost his control after one out to start the Phils on their way in the seventh. Willie Jones walked, Eddie Miller singled and Andy Seminick was hit by a pitched ball to load the bases. Stan Lopata batted for Robin Roberts and walked, forcing in one run. Howie Poffett replaced Johnson and fanned Richie Ashburn but Gran Hamner singled, scoring two more. Eddie Waitkus followed with a walk and Ted Wilks came in to pitch for the Cards. Del Ennis greeted him with a base-clearing double.

Ashburn's error and Ed Kazak's double gave the cards a two-run lead in the fourth but the Phils got one back when Waitkus and Stan Hollmig worked a double steal with the Phil's first baseman crossing the plate.

Successive hits by Ron Northey, Kazak and Glenn Nelson produced the Cards' second tally in the sixth. ## Tigers, Red Sox Battle To 14-14 Standstill In 13th

Detroit, May 3.—(P)—The Detroit Tigers and Boston Red Sox scored 14 runs apiece in regulation time but were unable to get a run across in the extra innings today. Their marathon contest today went into the record books as a 14-14 tie in 13 innings.

Eleven pitchers saw action in the free-clout game that had run three hours and 59 minutes when it was called because of darkness. Red Sox pitcher duties with two out in the last of the ninth, held the Tigers scoreless the rest of the way. The Detroiters left eight men stranded on base while Hughson was working. Twice he retired the side with the bases loaded.

Paul "Dizzy" Trout, the fifth Tiger pitcher of the afternoon, came in at the start of the 10th and allowed only three hits the rest of the way. The Tigers pounded out 18 hits off six Boston pitchers, with rookie Johnny Groth hitting homer No. 5 of the season and Aaron Robinson hitting his third, a three-run blast, in the third inning. Nobody was aboard when Groth hit his in the second inning.

The Red Sox matched the Detroiters in home run clouting. Ted Williams hit his third of the season with two men aboard in the fourth inning. Vern Stephens hit a two-run homer, his sixth of the campaign, in the first.

It was a 3-1 game going into the last of the third when the Tigers staged a nine-run uprising. Thirteen men batted in that inning, which saw six hits, three walks and an error figuring in the scoring. Detroit had two golden opportunities to break up the game in the extra innings. Catcher Bob Swift came up in the 11th and again in the 13th with the bases loaded and away, but could not come up with a hit.

Senators Blast 9 Homers To Edge White Sox 14-12

Chicago, May 3.—(P)—Clyde Vollmer, rookie outfielder, led the Washington Senators today on a home run binge that defeated the Chicago White Sox, 14 to 12, before 4,507 fans.

Vollmer collected two of the Senators' seven round trippers. The game went ten innings, the Sox tying the score at 12 to 12 in the ninth on Steve Souchock's pinch double.

Chicago, also helped by a wind blowing away from home plate, pulled out two homers. Washington took a 9 to 1 lead in the third on a double by Al Evans. After the White Sox scored four times in the third on five hits and one of Ray Scarborough's five walks, Vollmer hit his second homer of the day and fourth of the season. With the Senators leading 10 to 5, the Sox started to whittle away.

Catcher Joe Tipton, back in White Sox Manager Jack Onslow's good graces after a clubhouse run-in at St. Louis Sunday, hit his first homer of the season behind a pass to Cass Michaels in the sixth. Chicago scored four runs in the eighth to grab a 11 to 10 lead.

Evans led off the first extra round for Washington with his first 1949 homer. Then left fielder Gil Coan's drive landed in the lower right field pavilion to give the Senators their two-run advantage.

Dubiel Shuts Out
Boston As Cubs
Take 4-0 Victory

Boston, May 3.—(P)—Right hander Walt Dubiel, who joined the Cubs in a winter trade, tonight pitched a five hit shutout in leading the Chicagoans to a 4-0 victory over the National league leading Boston Braves.

It was the second time this season the defending champions have been blanked. Southpaw Ken Heintzelman pitched the Philadelphia Phillies to a 4-0 triumph over the Braves here opening day. The Cubs scored single runs in the second, third, fifth and ninth innings. Phil Cavarretta, Cub captain and first baseman, poled his second home run of the season in the third, a high clout into the visitors' bull pen.

Sid Gordon Sparks
Giants To 5-3 Win
Over Pittsburgh

New York, May 3.—(P)—Sid Gordon whacked a homer, triple and double tonight to spark the New York Giants to a 5-3 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates. Willard Marshall and Mickey Livingston also homered for the Giants to help Clint Hartung post his third straight triumph.

Gordon began the evening vigorously by cracking into a first inning doubleplay, but he atoned for it with a homer in the fourth a terrific triple in the sixth and a double in the eighth.

Little Murry Dickson, who set a major league record when he yielded 39 homers last year, served up all three Giant homers tonight. Hartung eased up in the late innings and the Pirates scored single runs in the eighth and ninth but Floppy was in command all the way. Pittsburgh 100 001-3 6 0. New York 010 112 00x-5 9 1. Dickson, W (6) and McCullough, Fitzgerald (7); Hartung and Livingston.

Choice woolled lambs reached $30.00 for the first time in three weeks, and choice clipped lambs sold downward from $29.25. Shorn ewes peaked at $12.50.

Receipts included 9,000 salable hogs, 11,000 cattle, 500 calves, and 500 sheep.

Leo Reinstated; Chandler Asks Player Protection

Cincinnati, May 3.—(P)—Commissioner A. B. "Happy" Chandler gave Leo Durocher a clean bill of health today and demanded that every baseball club in the country take immediate measures to protect its players from the abuse of fans.

In less than two hours, Chandler found there was not sufficient evidence to indicate the New York Giants' manager had "deliberately assaulted" Fred Boysen, a fan of the Polo grounds last Thursday. "Under the circumstances, the suspension against Durocher is lifted immediately and Durocher will rejoin his team on Wednesday, May 4th," Chandler announced as movie and still cameras preserved the happy scene for baseball posterity.

The commissioner took a belt both at club owners who have not properly policed their parks and at fans who have abused the athletes. "There is ample evidence," he said, "that the Polo grounds was not properly policed on the afternoon of April 28th, or Fred Boysen would not have been permitted to move about in the box seat section, for which he had no ticket, and to hurl insulting language, which he directed at Durocher principally, and would not have been on the field at the conclusion of the game."

"Fair play demands that vicious name-calling by fans, in the direction of players, be not indulged in. Ball players have a right to protection from unwarranted abuse."

8 Favorites Will Compete In Derby Trial Run Today

Louisville, Ky., May 3.—(P)—This Kentucky Derby business really began to warm up today with eight candidates for Saturday's $100,000 jamboree squaring off in a race worth $90,000 less—the derby trial. Several of the "leading men" in the world famous classic are slated for action in the one mile trial. It is the final test before Saturday's colorful show. Then some 100,000 turf customers will jam Churchill Downs to the limit and make Col. Matt J. Winn exceedingly happy that the thing got started 75 years ago.

The three big horses in this afternoon's race appear to be Fred W. Hopper's powerful combination of Olympia and Ocean Drive, and Greentree stable's even dangerous Capot. Each will carry 118 pounds.

Then there is the Calumet Farm pair of Deluxe and Ponder. If they belonged to other than Calumet's canny Ben Jones, they probably wouldn't rate much consideration. But when trainer Ben gets a horse ready for the Derby, you just have to look twice, because of Calumet's great record in the last eight years. The rest of them in the trial, Mrs. H. J. Damm's Rounder, Arthur P. Cotten's Peter Cotten, and Affton Villa Farm's Jacks Town, could be in there just for the ride.

Olympia, who has been favored for the derby since Blue Peter dropped out, and Ocean Drive undoubtedly will rule the public choice this afternoon, with Capot not far off in the mutual department.

Blueboy Nine Swamps Quincy Club 12 To 2; To Wheaton Saturday

The Illinois College baseball club to the local total. Jim Grant did his bit for the local cause in the lucky seventh when he duplicated his partner's feat at the plate. Grant wiped a trio of Jacksonville runners off the bags with a slashing triple into right-center field.

Blueboy scoring was culminated in the last half of the eighth when Bob Grove stepped across the plate to write run number 12 in Score-keeper Gaddo's black book and give Joe Brooks and college fans plenty to cheer about. Brooks will take his club to Wheaton college this Saturday for a CCI league battle. John Maynard will probably start this tussle on the mound for the locals.

Sam Spink and Joe Hill were busy during yesterday afternoon's contest taking up a collection from the students for a very worthwhile cause. Jim DeLopaz, a prospective football star at IC, suffered a broken leg in a recent intramural softball game. Hilltop students were asked to contribute funds to help defray his hospital bill which otherwise would fall entirely upon DeLopaz himself.

Yankees Down Browns 5 To 3

St. Louis, May 3.—(P)—Joe Page looking more like the Page of 1947, pitched three perfect innings today and gained credit for the victory as the New York Yankees downed the St. Louis Browns, 5-3.

Page took over from starter Ed Lopat in the seventh inning with the score tied at 3-3 and gained the nod when the Yanks pounced on Joe Ostrowski for two runs in the eighth. Gene Woodling singled to start the winning rally and raced home on Tommy Henrich's double to right. Henrich zipped home an out later on Bobby Brown's single to right.

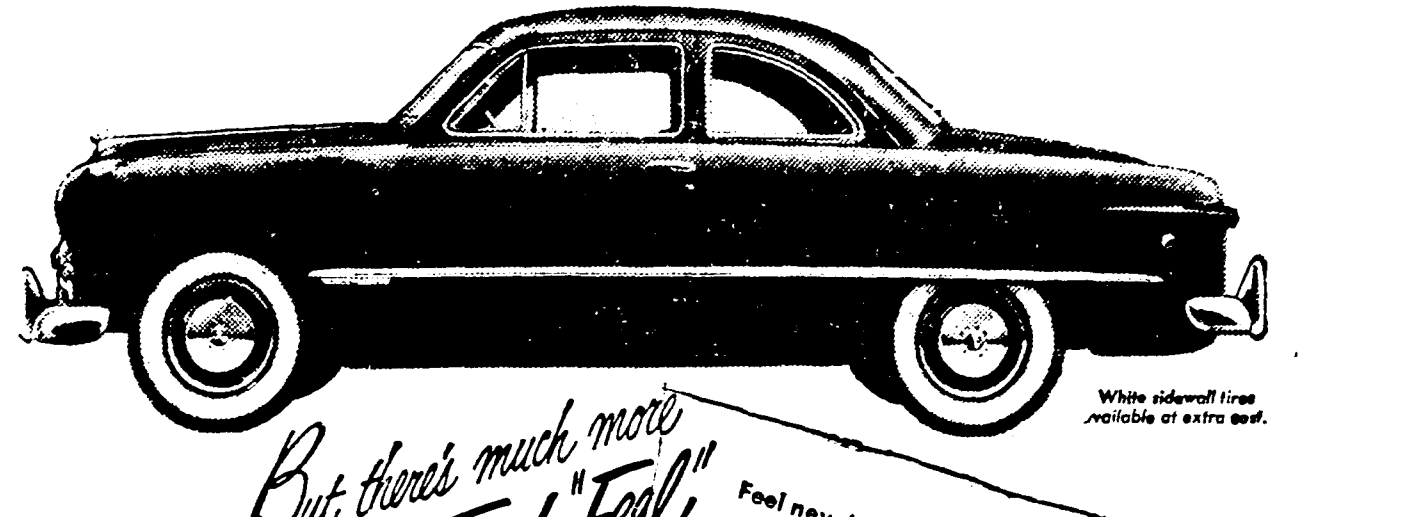

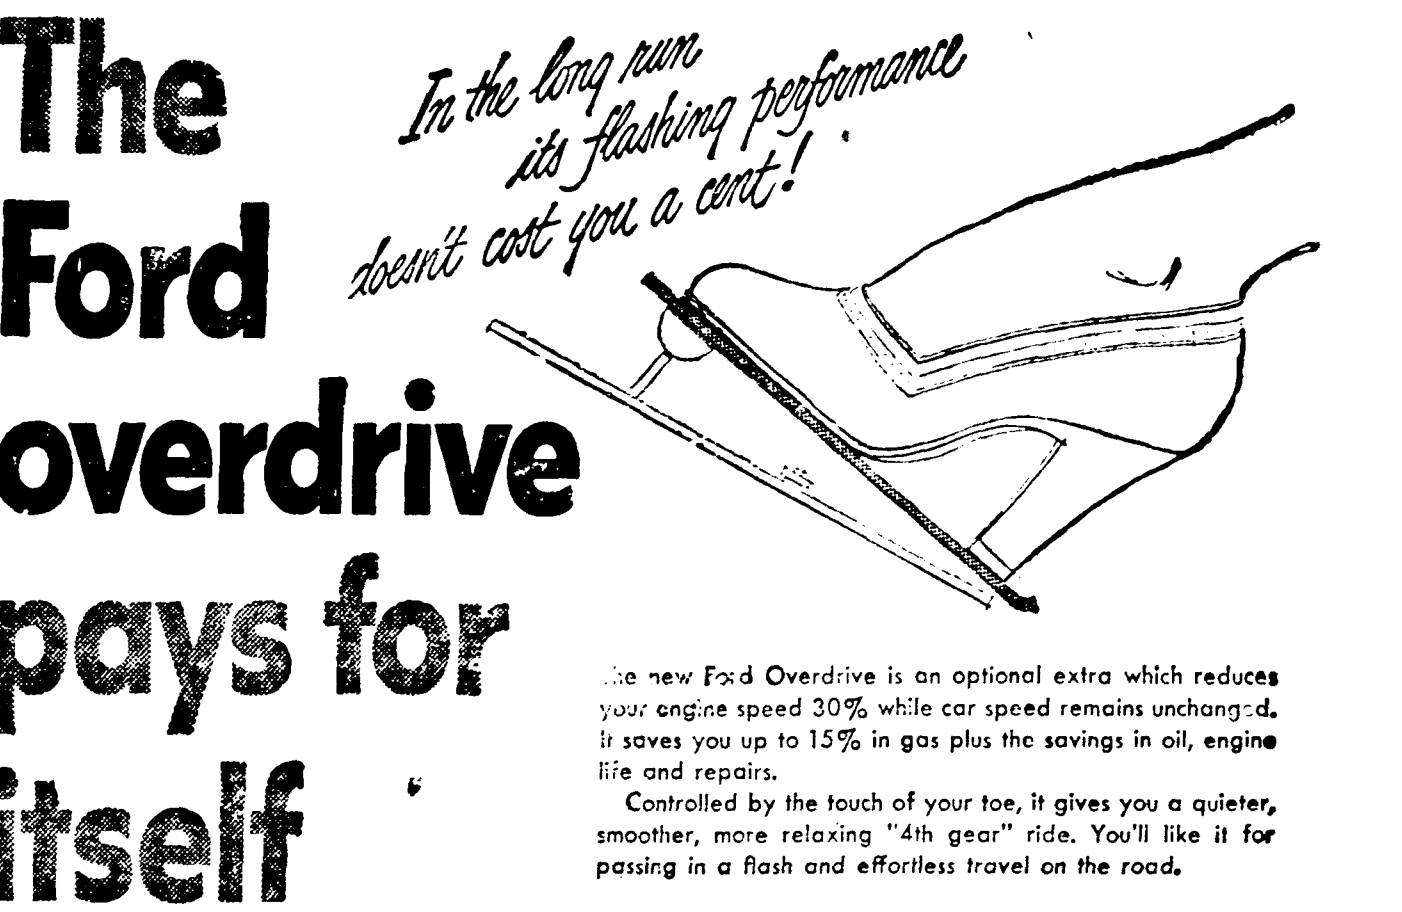

The U. S. Department of Agriculture says that both ripe and green avocados contain an abundance of vitamin A.

Police Draw Guns To Halt Suspects After South Main Burglary

Two Jacksonville young men were in county jail Tuesday night under bond of $10,000 each on charges of burglary and larceny to await the action of the grand jury, which will convene today. They were surprised and captured early Tuesday morning as they attempted to leave a lot in the rear of the store of the Clancy & Thompson grocery, 1236 South Main street, which had been burglarized.

The suspects, Donald Wynn, 20, and Robert Herrin, 19, are said to have attempted to make a getaway after the police car drove up. Capt. Ike Flynn and Patrolman Walter Hill drew their revolvers and ordered the pair to halt and get out of the car in which the motor was running.

Both suspects gave their address as an apartment house in the 500 block on North Church street.

HIGHER RANK

S/SGT. GLENN TAYLOR

Patterson—Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Everett Taylor of Patterson that their son, Glenn Taylor, was promoted to staff sergeant, effective April 21.

Staff Sgt. Taylor enlisted in the Air forces at Jacksonville and received his basic training at San Antonio, Texas. He was then sent to Scott Air Base, where he graduated from Technical School as a Tower Control Operator and was sent overseas in May 1947 to Ernest Harmon Field, Newfoundland, where he has since been stationed.

He is now a trick chief in the communication department of that Air Base.

Lions Club To Observe 25th Birthday Friday; To Hear Clifton Utley

The Jacksonville Lions club will commemorate 25 years of community service Friday night when the members and their wives attend the annual Ladies Night banquet. The dinner will be held at 7 p. m. at the Masonic Temple. Clifton Utley, Chicago radio commentator, will be the principal speaker.

The Jacksonville club was organized on April 24, 1924, at a charter night meeting held in Central Christian church. There were 44 charter members, many of whom are still living in Jacksonville.

There are no records of the contributions to community life by the club during the first four years.

But existing records show that the members distributed Thanksgiving baskets to needy residents in 1929. Since that time the group has sponsored many money-raising activities and have formed a habit of fostering many annual events for the benefit of various organizations and groups in Morgan county.

Sponsor Activities

During recent years the Lions have given a minstrel annually. This amateur musical has enjoyed great popularity and the club earns a good profit which is turned over to some community project. The profits of the 1949 show, around $1,500, has been assigned to the building fund of Passavant Memorial hospital.

The annual fall festival also realizes a substantial sum yearly.

The group has been especially interested in the welfare of blind residents. A Christmas party is given each year for the children at the Illinois School for the Blind. In 1932 the club sponsored a white canes for blind adults city ordinance and presented the canes to the blind. The members purchased and maintains gum machines and the profits from these devices has been used to purchase glasses for indigent individuals.

Other Achievements

Other achievements include participation in semi-annual scrap drives, the improvement of Central Park, participation in the Youth Center project and substantial contributions to the school band Boosters club, Salvation Army, Sam Nicholas Christmas Fund, Our Saviour's hospital, Morgan County Health Fund and the Morgan County Fair association.

O. E. Schuette, president of the club, will preside at the anniversary dinner. Mr. Utley, who is well known in Jacksonville, will be introduced by Orville Foreman.

Investigate Death Of Second Traffic Accident Victim

A coroner's jury heard seven witnesses at the Williamson Funeral Home Tuesday night in its investigation of the death of 18 months old Beverly Jo Floreth, who died at Our Saviour's hospital at 2 p. m. Sunday from injuries sustained in a traffic accident. An open verdict was returned.

Beverly Jo died about 19 hours after the two-car crash which occurred on Route 67 about a mile south of Jacksonville Saturday evening.

The witnesses related the same details they gave in Monday's inquest into the death of Mrs. Earl H. Floreth, Beverly Jo's mother, who was instantly killed when automobiles driven by Earl H. Floreth and Carroll J. Henderson of Murrayville collided on the highway.

Tuesday night's witnesses were Deputy Sheriff Arthur Roach, State Highway Patrolman Jack Hoecker, James Grant, Floyd Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grove and Jean Avl-chouser.

The jury also heard a statement prepared by Dr. Mary Louise Newman.

Deputy Coroner Roy Covington was in charge of the inquest. The jury was composed of W. E. Marine, foreman; Lillian C. Lair, Elizabeth Henderson, Nelle Wintler, Eileen Artholony and Dale K. Leurig.

Local Examination June 4 For Five Scholarships

The annual examination for scholarships to the University of Illinois will be held in the office of John C. Deem, county superintendent of schools, on Saturday, June 4.

Five scholarships will be awarded: county scholarship, home economics, agriculture, for children of veterans of World War I and for children of veterans of World War II.

The same examination will be written by candidates for all scholarships and will consist of two parts. The first part, conducted during the forenoon, will be all English and the second part, during the afternoon, will include any two of the following three subject matter fields: social studies, mathematics and natural science.

All the candidates must write the English examination, which will be primarily on composition and rhetoric, including spelling and vocabulary. It will not include literature.

The science examination will include those science subjects normally taught in high school. All examinations will be of the objective type.

To be eligible a candidate must, at the time of the examination, have been a resident of the county for at least one year, must meet the requirements for admission to the university and must have stood within the upper 50 per cent of his graduating class.

Prospective candidates should notify the county superintendent's office at once, so that a sufficient number of questions will be available for the examination.
